MOST OF THE STUDENTS OF WILLIAM AND MARY

Are preparing to earn their own livelihood, some in professions, others in the business world. Many of these, on leaving the dear old College, will want to know what the best preparation for that work may be. It is more than probable that all such would be glad to know of National Eastman Business College.

Poughkeepsie, New York.

Of the prosperous business men and women it has turned out and started. Of the thoroughly practical training it affords for lives of usefulness and responsibility. Of its success in securing employment for large numbers of its worthy graduates. Of its courses of study, rates, methods, and best time of enrollment.

If you think of fitting yourself for business, and wish to attend the best school, you should write for our Catalogue. It will be sent for the asking.

BOOKS THAT WILL INTEREST YOU.

Lee's School History of the United States, by Mrs. Susan P. Lee, of Lexington, Va. Well written, beautifully illustrated, and issued in excellent style. We earnestly ask that teachers of History will examine and compare it with other school Histories. Now in course of preparation and will be issued in a short time.

"Southern Literature," by Miss Louise Manly, of South Carolina, a valuable text-book for every student of literature who would keep fully abreast of the times. This work, besides copious extracts and criticisms, contains the fullest list of Southern authors ever published.

"Southern States of the American Union," by Dr. J. L. M. Curry. We have just issued a student's edition of this valuable historical work.

We offer also many other books especially adapted to the needs of Southern schools. Send for our educational catalogue.

"These books are not mere State Histories; they are something much more and very much better than that. They are attempts to embody what is most distinct and peculiar in the political life and history of each State, and to show how that has contributed to the development of the whole. The widespread interest awakened in the past of our nation will find much to satisfy it in these volumes, for the design is original and the execution excellent."—GEO. WILLIS COOKE.

"No. 1 PRESERVATIVE."—Price, $2.50 Per Gallon.

For ALL INTERIOR or protected EXTERIOR surfaces where extreme durability is desired. It develops the grain and preserves hard or soft woods, intensifying their lights, shadows and natural beauties. It hermetically seals the pores of all woods, thus preventing the germs of disease penetrating the same, and is invaluable in private dwellings, hospitals and public institutions. It will not crack, turn white, or blister, and its surface is not affected by washing with hot or cold water and soap, or by contact with ammoniac gases, generated in bath-rooms, water closets, or stables. As a coating and finish on floors, oil cloths, furniture, and over grained or painted surfaces it is superior to any material in use. Can be rubbed and polished, or after rubbing left with an egg-shell gloss.

"SPAR COMPOSITION."—Price, $4.00 Per Gallon.

A Tough, Elastic Coating for all Wood or Iron Work Exposed to the Extremes of the Weather.

As a finish on all exterior parts of Steamships, Yachts, Canoes, and Vessels of all kinds, will wear longer than the best English or other Varnishes. As a finish on Outside and Vestibule Doors, Window Casings, or any Exposed Parts of Edifices will outwear any other material.

BATH-ROOM FINISH.—List Price, $3.00 per Gallon.

Especially for use in Toilet, Bath, Engine, Refrigerator and Store Rooms, Boat Houses, Yacht Cabins and Saloons, Laboratories, Kitchens, Pantries, Water Closets, and Stables. It is unsurpassed for Floors. Not affected by frequent contact with Chemical Gases, Immersion in Salt Water, or Washing with Hot Water and Soap.

AMBERLINE FINISH.—List Price, $2.00 per Gallon.

Quick Drying and Brilliant. Can be rubbed and polished, or after rubbing left with an Egg-Shell Gloss. Can be used on all Interior Work, except where a finish is required that will resist the action of chemical gases, steam, hot or cold water and soap.

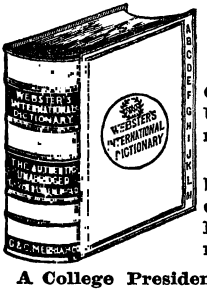
Entirely New.
Abreast of the Times.
A Grand Educator.



Successor of the "Unabridged."

Standard of the U. S. Gov't Printing Office, the U. S. Supreme Court and of nearly all the Schoolbooks.

Warmly commended by every State Superintendent of Schools, and other Educators almost without number.

A College President writes: "For ease "with which the eye finds the word sought, "for accuracy of definition, for effective "methods in indicating pronunciation, for "terse yet comprehensive statements of facts, "and for practical use as a working diction-"ary, 'Webster's International' excels any "other single volume."

American • Academy • of • Political • and • Social • Science.

FOUNDED DEC. 14, 1889. CHARTERED FEB. 14, 1891.

The purpose of the Academy is the promotion of the Political and Social Sciences.

While it does not exclude any portion of the field indicated in its title, yet its chief object is the development of those aspects of the Political and Social Sciences which are either entirely omitted from the programs of other societies, or which do not at present receive the attention they deserve.

The proceedings of the Academy are published in the form of a periodical called the ANNALS OF THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF POLITICAL AND SOCIAL SCIENCE, which, together with such other matter as may be published for that purpose, is sent to all members of the Academy free of charge. It contains the leading papers which have been submitted to the Academy, the Proceedings of the Scientific Sessions of Academy, reviews of the latest political, economic and social books, brief biographical sketches of the workers in the field of political and social science, notes on municipal government, and sociological notes.

The co-operation of all persons interested in the investigation of Political and Social affairs is earnestly solicited.

The Annals for May, 1895, contains Uniform State Legislation, by F. J. Stimson, Esq.

State Supervision for Cities, by Prof. J. R. Commons.

Theories of Value and the Standard of Deferred Payments, by Prof. Frank Fetter.

Industrial Services of the Railway, by Emory R. Johnson, Ph. D.

DENTISTRY.—L. M. COWARDIN, M. D., D. D. S., Chairman.
PHARMACY.—T. ASHBY MILLER, PH. G., Chairman.

Each of these Departments has an independent Faculty, numbering thirty-four (34) in the Medical, eight (8) in the Dental, and six (6) in the Pharmaceutical Department.

The REGULAR SESSION will begin SEPTEMBER 12th, 1895, and continues eight months.

THE SYSTEM OF INSTRUCTION is a graded one, and consists of DIDACTIC LECTURES, CLINICAL TEACHING, QUIZZES, RECITATIONS, and LABORATORY WORK, so arranged that the work of each year does not conflict with the work of the other two years, the course of study being about equally divided between recitations and lecture work, on the one hand, and laboratory work and clinics on the other.

PERSONAL WORK in the Anatomical, Chemical, Histological, Pathological, Physiological, Dental and Pharmaceutical Laboratories is a prominent and most important feature, and without additional expense.

THE VIRGINIA HOSPITAL and its Outdoor Departments, which adjoin the College buildings, furnish ample facilities for genuine clinical instruction, and the Professors of the different Departments are allowed the use of this Hospital as a school of practical instruction.

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY HISTORICAL MAGAZINE.

FIFTH YEAR. $2.00 PER ANNUM.

Published by EBEN PUTNAM, Salem, Mass.

Especially valuable to students of N. E. genealogy, but interesting to descendants of all early settlers North and South.

There will soon begin a series of articles upon AMERICAN HARALDRY, showing the arms and crests of American families entitled to the same. To make this more complete, all persons claiming coat-armor are requested to send to the editor a description of their coat-of-arms and proof of right.

QUERIES INSERTED FREE, and communications upon genealogical and historical subjects relating to any part or family of the thirteen original States gladly received.

Commissions for logical and heraldic investigations requested, either in America, England, or the Continent.

$7, $10, $12.50, $15, SERGES.

Of course every store in town has got Serge Suits—of some sort or other—to sell at $7.50—$10—$12.50—and $15—same as we have. But see if the similarity doesn't begin and end with the price. Difference is plain enough when you begin to compare varieties and prices.

This has been our banner season for Blue and Black Serges. Sold more—got more to sell. Got our tailors hard at work making more still.

"True Blues" are famous—they're $15.

"Russian Navy" is next—almost as good—and only $12.50.

The $10 grade is fast color and all wool.

So's the $7.50.

You'll find 'em in Single and Double Breasted Sacks and Cutaways. Lined all through—or only half. Sizes from 33 to 50.

Just judge 'em from your idea of worth. We haven't had one to come back this season. You'd get the money—quick—if it did.
